

“Rally for the Cure” Celebrates 12th Anniversary Locally

For 12 years, the unique partnership between Memorial Medical Center and Saint Joseph’s Hospital in Marshfield has formed and strengthened relationships in the battle against breast cancer.

The 12th annual Rally Golf Outing for Breast Cancer Research was held at Neillsville Country Club, raising funds for cancer research. This year’s celebration was another successful “Rally for the Cure®,” in a series of memorable and meaningful fundraising events for the Susan G. Komen Foundation.

The spirit of collaboration and the common goal of fighting breast cancer bring a special connection between the two communities and their hospitals. In addition to golf, the 80 participants enjoy food, prizes, education and tremendous camaraderie.

On the “Rally Hole” a number of golfers were successful in getting their tee shot on the green, which netted them a Titelist golf ball bearing the pink ribbon breast cancer awareness symbol. The winner of the closest-to-the-pin contest was Margie Zschernitz, who received a Cleveland golf putter. Also awarded at the luncheon for a door prize was a Cleveland Golf Premium Stand Bag that went to Jewel Nienast of Marshfield. The winning golf team consisted of the following: Doreen Helms, Granton; Jane Niehaus, Marshfield; Kathy Phillips, Marshfield; and Linda Fenske, Marshfield. Prizes were awarded to the winning team and all hole challenge winners. All players received important early detection information, an exclusive Rally pink ribbon golf pin as well as a one-year subscription of their choice to Golf Digest, Self, Bon Appetit or Architectural Digest magazine

Since 1996, Rally for the Cure has proudly spreads the life-saving message of early detection to more than 1.9 million participants through sporting and social events, and Rally contributors have raised more than $60 million dollars.
