The Foundation of Memorial Medical Center recently welcomed five new members to their board of directors: Neil Armitage (Dental Clinic of Marshfield), Merrill Brunette (M&M Catering), Al Kvittek (Thrivent Financial), Jerry Quicker (community member), and Sheryl Young (community member).

The new members attended an orientation session and were initiated on the board. They bring different backgrounds and experiences to the organization, and will help promote and generate support for Memorial Medical Center.

"I recognize the importance and value that the medical center brings to our community," stated Armitage. "I look forward to being part of the on-going efforts to ensure that the medical center has the tools it needs to continue to provide quality health care to the Neillsville area."

"I'm looking forward to joining Memorial Medical Center Foundation board to assist with growth and to assure that Memorial Medical Center stays in Neillsville and remains strong, locally-owned and controlled," said Quicker. "The services it provides to the community and the employment it offers are both very critical to the growth and well-being of our area."

The Foundation board is comprised of 11 total members, including Dr. Tim Meyer (Memorial Medical Center), President, Wendy Sigurdson (School District of Neillsville/Urban Sales & Service), Vice-President, Jana Marden (community member), Secretary/Treasurer, Bob Barth (Sav-Rite Building Center), Dan Herbrand (Greater Insurance Service), Scott Polenz (Memorial Medical Center), and the newly-inducted members.

"We are excited to welcome these members and expand our board, especially with the high caliber of our new recruits," stated Dr. Tim Meyer, Foundation Board President. "Our board will truly benefit from such a diverse range of opinions, expertise and experiences."
