MMC Names Interim Leadership Team

With a unanimous vote on Tuesday, December 6th the Board of Directors for Memorial Medical Center committed to formally begin the recruitment process for a full-time Chief Executive Officer. The decision came one week after current CEO Scott Polenz announced his resignation, effective January 11, 2012. The Board also adopted an interim leadership structure for MMC while the search is being conducted.

“The Board is committed to ensuring the best possible candidate is hired for this important position” commented Bob Barth, President of the MMC Board of Directors. “We will use numerous resources to get the word out; including the Rural Wisconsin Health Co-Op, the Wisconsin Hospital Association, newspapers, and contacts with other hospitals. We will also seek the services of contingency search firms” he continued.

The goal in the CEO search is to identify 3 to 4 high quality candidates within the next 30 to 60 days. In order to accomplish this goal, a transition committee consisting of Board members, medical staff, administration, leader(s), and employee(s) will be formed to oversee the interview process.

While the search is being conducted for the new CEO, the Board also appointed an interim “team” to oversee Memorial Medical Center in Neillsville, Loyal and Greenwood. The interim “team” includes Dr. Tim Meyer, Chief Medical Officer, Kelly Moen, Chief Financial Officer, Sharon Bergsholm, Chief Nursing Officer, and Bob Barth, Board President.

In a memo to all staff on Wednesday, December 7th, Polenz commented regarding the shared interim team approach. “We are 100% confident in this model and our approach in finding a high quality CEO. Our ship is sailing smoothly today and this approach will keep things going as we move forward. “
