Care...at its best

MMC Greenwood Clinic Welcomes New Nurse Practitioner

Memorial Medical Center welcomes Cindy Woldt-Schmidt, Family Nurse Practitioner, to the Greenwood Clinic.

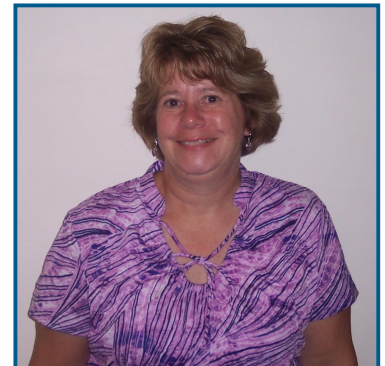

Woldt-Schmidt has lived in Clark County for 16 years and currently resides with her family in Owen.

Woldt-Schmidt has over 22 years of nursing experience, including 12 years working for Clark County Public Health. She also worked as a Case Manager Nurse at Security Health Plan.

She received her master's degree in nursing from UW-Eau Claire in May, and completed clinical trainings at Lac du Flambeau Tribal Health, Marshfield Clinic, Family Planning Health Services in Wausau, and Memorial Medical Center in Neillsville and Loyal. Her focus was on women's health and family practice.

"Clark County is my home, and establishing a practice in Greenwood is an exceptional opportunity for me. My style of delivering care and the values and ideals of Memorial Medical Center align very well. It isn't about the number of patients, but the relationships with people and their overall wellness," explained Woldt-Schmidt.

Woldt-Schmidt will begin practicing at the Greenwood Clinic this fall.
